Attention to slow learners/students:

There are some students who are not able to cope up with the quick learners. Therefore, the department has to undertake some special methods to make them understand the subject more easily besides classroom attention. The methods are:

- I. Students are encouraged to attend remedial classes.
- II. Sometimes notes and study materials are supplied to them.
- III. They are encouraged to search internet for some special topics if not found in their text books.
- IV. They are provided with the facility of books from the library and especially from the departmental library.
- V. The faculty members allow the students to contact them outside the class whenever needed to clarify any topic from the syllabus.

Participation in institutional social responsibility (ISR) and extension activities:- ( Please provide List of extension Activities of the Department like Educational Field Trip, Lecture Programme, any other Relevant activities with photographs)

*Inauguration of Educatum
