

Departmental Profile

Department of Bodo G.L. Choudhury College, Barpeta Road P.O. Barpeta Road, Dist. Barpeta (Assam) PIN-781315

Department of Bodo at a Glance:

The Department of Bodo of G.L. Choudhury College has been introduced in U.G. Level since 1999-2000. At the initial stage (from 1990) there was no teacher to teach the Bodo MIL in H.S. level. So students were appeared as NIP (Non Institutional Private) candidate in H.S. Final Exam. But when Mr. Jadab Basumatary was appointed on 20/03/1997 then from that time the Department has been trying to import knowledge in the subject in H.S. and U.G. Level. But Mr. Jadab Basumatary left the college on 30/09/2000. Then Maikan Basumatary was appointed on 18/07/2001 and since then she has been working as an Assistant Professor in the Department holding the responsibility of HOD. Afterwards Junumoni Basumatary was appointed on 10/12/2004 as a lecturer in the 2nd post to fulfill the requirement for opening Elective Bodo in the Department. Meanwhile after her appointment Elective Bodo was introduced in 2005-2006 and Bodo Major was also introduced in 2011-2012. But Junumoni Basumatary left the college on 14/08/2012. After Junumoni Basumatary, Anjali Narzary (11/09/2012) and Bhatima Boro (14/09/2012) both of them were appointed in the department. But Bhatima Boro also left the college on 09/09/2013 and to fulfill her post Jonil Kr. Goyary was appointed on 23/09/2013. But Jonil Kr. Goyary also left the college on 30/10/2021. After his left Samela Wary has been appointed as an Assistant. Professor (Contractual) on 1/11/2021. On 24/09/2021 Dr. Anjali Narzary appointed as an Assistant professor in sanction post. Now the Department is fulfill with three faculty members.

It is very sorrowful matter that due to Govt.'s negligency the progress of the Department is not satisfactory till now.

Meeting of the Department:

Every year before the commencement of the new session / semester the first meeting is organized in the month of August and January. In the said meeting the syllabuses of course (both for H.S & B.A.) were discussed. Generally three or four meetings are organized to discuss about question paper setting for sessional examination, dissertation preparation, departmental seminar, popular lecture programme. The routine of the faculty members is also drawn to other relevant matters.

Teaching Learning Method:

The department not only follows the black board method of teaching but also other devices like seminars, Panel discussion, symposium are also held in order to import knowledge to the students on some topics. Sometimes tutorial and remedial classes are taken for the progress of weak students. Moreover, the department also maintains student feedback report. Revisions, analysis of probable questions are done in the class so that the students try to prepare the answer of the questions properly. Current topics related to the subject are often discussed in the class. ICT method also use in class when necessary. Again sometimes online classes are also taken on Holiday /Sunday for the revision of course broadly.

Evaluation:

Through regular tutorials, home assignments and unit test, sessional examinations, the knowledge and understandings of the students in evaluated. And accordingly they are advised to prepare for the Final Examination. All the records of tutorials, Home Assignments and Unit Test, Sessional Examination are reviewed in Department.

Awards/ Recognitions received by the faculty and students:

All the rank holders in the degree final examination with Bodo Major and other major are awarded by the Bodo Students Literary and Cultural Society (BSL & CS), Teachers' Unit and Principal of the college since 2014-15. For the year 2020 (1st Time) 'Amulya Biswas Memorial Award' is presented to Khwrwmdao Basumatary for securing Highest marks in B.A. (Bodo Major) with Excellent certificate, Anglo Bodo Dictionary & 5000.00 Rupees by Dr. Jaya Biswas Kunda, Principal i/c & her family members.

Library of the Department:

The Department Library has been started from the year 2014 after provincialisation. The library contains more than 300 books at present. The books are donated by the faculty members of the Department of Bodo and other donors. The college authority also grants fund to purchase books for the Departmental Library. Mr. Jonil Kr. Goyary was the in-charge of the Departmental Library. But now Dr. Anjali Narzary is the in charge. Basically the library contains books of UG level. Moreover, there are some references books also for the faculty members as well as students.

Attention to slow Learners / Students:

Generally, most of the students admitted in our college are not meritorious at entry level, therefore special care and sincere attention is paid to the weaker and slow learners. The area in which we pay attention are-

- (i) Issue of books (at least three) to them for the whole of the session from the Departmental Library.
- (ii) Regular Personal contact outside classroom is also made regarding and kind of academic problems of the students.
- (iii) Students are also encouraged to attend the Remedial classes regularly.
- (iv) Hand written Notes and Xerox materials are also provide regularly for the benefit of the students.
- (v) Through open House discussion of the department, the faculty members encourage the students regarding their family problems too.
