

DEPARTMENT OF BODO
G. L. CHOUDHURY COLLEGE, BARPETA ROAD

Programme Outcome: After the successful completion of this programme, students will acquire an adequate amount of knowledge in various disciplines of the Bodo society. These include information about the history of bodo literature, ancient social laws, bodo rituals, folk customs and its political and cultural traditions. The fulfillment of the academic work during this programme will strengthen the students' awareness of the Bodo language, assisting them in the society.

Programme Specific Outcome: This programme contributes to the students' competency in creative writing and public speaking, greatly raising their communicative skills. Passing undergraduate course while completing this programme allows students to further progress their education by applying for post graduate courses in literature, linguistics and cultural studies act. Accordingly, in the future, various opportunities will emerge for the students to pursue a career in education and several other related occupations.

Course Outcome: Completion of this programme aids the students in obtaining a sound comprehension of the social, cultural and historical background of the Bodo literature. Basic knowledge required for a successful communication in the Bodo society will be implemented in this programme, which will assist the students in numerous aspects. This syllabus covers a wide variety of topics in both Western and Eastern Bodo literature such as criticism of the writers, comparative literature as well as Bodo culture and traditions.